

Continuing Education Checklist

Below, we've included a list of PSI educational resources that you can highlight (if applicable) when posting about your educational efforts and credentials this Pet-Sitter Education Month™, as well as space to list other trainings and credentials you've completed from other organizations. Check off the items you've completed.

This checklist is also a great tool you can use to determine the continuing education options you would like to pursue in the coming months, so you'll have even more to post about next year!
